INVITATION

All participants are cordially invited to present their research or scientific work at the 17th conference DIAGNOSTIKA 26, a renowned scientific conference organized by the Faculty of Electrical Engineering, University of West Bohemia (FEE UWB) in Pilsen. Since 1993, this biennial event has provided a platform for sharing advancements in diagnostics. The 17th edition will bring together experts in electrical engineering to exchange research and insights on material structures, properties, and applications in electrical systems. The previous editions were indexed in Scopus, IEEE Xplore, and Web of Science.

TOPICS

All topics related to diagnostics in electrical engineering, including but not limited to:

ON-SITE TESTING THEORIES CONDITION MONITORING
ELECTRICAL INSULATION MODELS STRUCTURAL CHANGES
ELECTRICAL MACHINES & DEVICES PARTIAL DISCHARGES
LABORATORY METHODS AI IN DIAGNOSTICS SPACE CHARGE
ENERGY TRANSITION & MORE

Deadline for abstracts: December 15th 2025
